

Association of Translation Companies
DEFINING STANDARDS OF EXCELLENCE

December Newsletter 2021

CEO's Greetings

Not only have I got new hair, but a new year will soon be upon us – with its new challenges and opportunities.

The ATC's End of Year Report will be published in mid-December. But before that, I look forward to seeing you at the ATC Language Industry Awards on 9th December!

Thank you for being part of the ATC community.
Raisa McNab

Language Industry Report

The ATC UK Language Services Industry Survey & Report is the only market research focusing on the United Kingdom, the largest country market in Europe. Trends, data and rankings. Challenges and opportunities for SMEs. Ranking of the biggest players. Out now!

READ MORE

Awards Evening Do!

#atcawards2021 brings the ATC community together for an evening of fun and celebration. Join us on 9 December to raise a glass to the winners, network, raise money for Translators without Borders, and a live tour of a Welsh craft brewery!

READ MORE

Tech Takeaways

In the language services world, 'tech' infiltrates every aspect of what we do. We teamed up with the ATC's Partners for a Tech Round Table in November to discuss the current tech landscape, and SME companies pain points and challenges, automation, solutions, and the humans behind it all.

Creative Services is #1

Creative industries are the #1 source of work for ATC member companies. Nearly 40% offer dubbing and voiceover services. Claim your stake, and start with a private session with ATC Partner GM Voices, an amazing production company for multilingual voice-overs.

BOOK NOW

ATC Membership 2022

The ATC is a community of 214 member companies in the UK and across the world. We are here for you, to raise the industry's profile and prestige, and support you in your business. Renew your membership for 2022 today, or join us with the rest of 2021 for free!

READ MORE