

January 2022 Newsletter

CEO's Greetings

Happy New Year 2022!

This first newsletter of the year brings you the Language Industry Awards Winners, our traditional End of Year Report and new partners and members.

It also reminds us that, despite Brexit, the UK is still part of Europe, and your views on European trends matter. Take the ELIS survey today!

Raisa McNab

End of Year Report 2021

The ATC's End of Year Report rounds 2021 up for the ATC community of over 210 language service companies, our partners and stakeholders. From business support to events, take a look at what the year was like, and what's in store for 2022!

READ MORE

2021 Awards Winners

The ATC Language Industry Awards celebrate the operational excellence of ATC member companies and the language industry professionals who support them. Huge congratulations to the winners of the 2021 Awards!

READ MORE

ELIS Survey Opens!

ELIS, the European Language Industry Survey, scopes current trends in the European language services landscape.

Take five minutes and answer 20 simple questions on how you see the European market today!

TAKE SURVEY

ATC Partners with W.L. UK

The ATC and Women in Localization UK are excited to announce a local partnership to foster connections, facilitate discussion and collaboration, and encourage participation in the ATC's and W.L. UK's local activities and events.

READ MORE

memoQ Joins the ATC

memoQ, one of the language services industry's most well-known and respected translation technology tools developers, joins the ATC as Technology Partner! Read more about what Damien Saby from memoQ has to say about the partnership.

READ MORE

Welcome New Members!

Associate Members

