

Association of Translation Companies
DEFINING STANDARDS OF EXCELLENCE

March Newsletter 2021

CEO's Greetings

It was a tough job, deciphering what Brexit really means for language service providers. You can now benefit from our guidance in the newly published Post-Brexit Guide, free of charge.

In other news, a new ATC website, networking in a 3D world, member of the month and the last chance to enter our exciting Stand Out – Be Outstanding Competition.

Raisa McNab

Institute of Translation and Interpreting

Post-Brexit Guide

The ATC's & the ITI's Post-Brexit Guide covers cross-border provision of services, VAT, business travel, owning and managing companies, data protection, accounting, immigration and internships..

READ MORE

Enter Stand Out – Be Outstanding Competition

Last day to enter the competition! The ATC's Stand Out – Be Outstanding Competition celebrates the language service companies that provide constant support to their industry partners. Showcase your expertise and enter the competition today!

ENTER NOW

New ATC Website

We're proud to unveil the ATC's new all-round improved website: for better engagement, and more authoritative representation of language service companies and the work we do for our members and the industry.

READ MORE

Networking in a 3D World

The EUATC's conference T-Update 21 Virtual takes place in a 3D world, amongst industry decision-makers in an exclusive group who'll help shape the future of our dynamic industry – the closest thing to being there in person!

READ MORE

Member of the Month

The ATC's Member of the Month is Translayte. "We've found a real niche in providing certified translations across the world to direct clients and language service companies alike," says Director Tayo Ademolu.

READ MORE

Welcome New Members!

Association of
Translation Companies
DEFINING STANDARDS OF EXCELLENCE

Unsubscribe