

Newsletter February 2020

Association of Translation Companies

DEFINING STANDARDS OF EXCELLENCE

Over the past year, we've been busy doing things that matter to YOU, our members, and some of the tangible benefits of that work are out now.

This month, I'm pleased to bring you news of new research and guidelines on certifying translations, our Public Sector Manifesto and Europe-wide research on the language services industry.

And of course, to extend a warm welcome to our first Associate Members!

If you haven't signed up yet, there are still a few places at our exciting networking event on 27 February.

Looking forward to seeing you there!

Raisa McNab

Chief Executive Officer

Networking Day 27 February

There are still a few places left for our networking event with the Google Digital Garage on 27 February 2020 in Portsmouth. Don't miss out!

Learn about digital marketing strategies and answering questions about marketing data with the Google Digital Garage. Great takeaways for both you and your clients! Network with ATC

Google

Digital Garage

REGISTER NOW

Certification of Translations

New research initiated by the ATC highlights the lack of standardisation in how UK public sector organisations accept certified translations.

The ATC has produced new guidelines for the use of the ATC's Certification Stamp. These guidelines aim to encourage standardised practices involving the certification of translations in the UK.

READ MORE

European Language Industry Survey

The annual European Language Industry Survey is open. Please take a few minutes to help scope European trends and practices in a changing landscape.

TAKE SURVEY

Public Sector Manifesto

The ATC's newly published Public Sector Manifesto sets out our objectives towards sustainable development within the procurement and provision of language services in the UK's public sector, in close collaboration with stakeholders across the industry.

READ MORE

ATC Public Sector Manifesto

Towards sustainable development in the procurement and provision of language services for the public sector
23 January 2020

Associate Membership

A very warm welcome to the ATC! The ATC is pleased to introduce new Associate Members following the announcement of new membership categories.

- Aqua Interpreting Group
- Aploq Translations
- Renaissance Translations

JOIN NOW

Unsubscribe

Peershaws, Berewyk Hall Court, White Colne, CO6 2QB - Company Number: 01253826