

ATC Newsletter October 2020

Association of Translation Companies
DEFINING STANDARDS OF EXCELLENCE

CEO's Greetings

In this newsletter, we celebrate the ATC's ISO Certification Service's first three years, and a significant landmark moment in our lobby to secure continued access to the linguistic skills of translators and interpreters in post-Brexit Britain.

We also share with you the results of a new survey on the relationship between language service companies and language professionals, produced by CIOL in association with the ATC.

And of course, we welcome new members to the association alongside OONA, our latest Technology Partner.

Raisa McNab
Chief Executive Officer

MAC recommends interpreters on the SOL

In a significant landmark moment for our lobby for continued access to the linguistic skills of translators and interpreters in post-Brexit Britain, the Migration Advisory Committee's latest review recommends the inclusion of interpreters on the Shortage Occupation List.

Building Bridges – A CIOL/ATC collaboration

A new survey from the Chartered Institute of Linguists, produced in association with the ATC, charts the relationships between language professionals and language service providers.

The survey allows us to gain a better understanding of the working relationship between individual translators and interpreters and language service companies, and to explore areas for improvement to benefit the sector as a whole.
