

January 2023 Newsletter

CEO's Greetings

Happy New Year!

The ATC's traditional End of Year Report wraps 2022 up, as we get ready for 2023 events and initiatives. More than ever before, 2023 will be about having meaningful conversations, and building strong business relationships.

Looking forward to it all!

Raisa McNab

ATC End of Year Report

The ATC's End of Year Report looks back at the year's activities, collaborations and projects by the ATC and its community of members: 215 of them in the UK and across the world, with 29 companies having joined us in 2022.

READ MORE

ELIS Survey Open

The European Language Industry Survey is open for your insights! How do language service companies see the market and how are their businesses developing? Share your experiences and help scope European trends, challenges and opportunities.

READ MORE

Indian Market Networking

Indian language services market: what, why and how? Join the ATC and CITLoB, the Indian Confederation of Interpreting, Translation & Localisation Businesses, in exploring the Indian Language Services Market, online on 19 January 2023.

READ MORE

LSP Tech Talk

Tech implementation, automation, finding the right solutions. These are some of the most pressing challenges LSPs face. LSP Tech Talk by ATC Partner lingo systems brings the community together to share experiences on 1 March 2023.

READ MORE

Ukraine Business Support

The war in Ukraine has destroyed lives, homes and businesses. But in the middle of daily fear, struggle and hardship, Ukrainians continue to work and do business. We can make a difference by making the right business decisions.

READ MORE

CBI Global Trade Hub

CBI, the UK's most prominent business organisation, highlights LO-C 30 research and the value of language capabilities in an article published in the CBI Global Trade Hub, signposting firms to assess their readiness to increase international sales and profits.

READ MORE

Member of the Month

The ATC's Member of the Month is International Translations Ltd, a company with strong local connections but a global reach. We caught up with ITL Director and ATC Vice-Chair on the power of business networks.

READ MORE

Welcome New Members

Unsubscribe