

Social Selling

14th May 2024, Birmingham

Building Business Through Social Media and Business Networks

Hotels.

The British Allied Trades Federation (BATF) is located at Federation House, 10 Vyse Street, Birmingham, B18 6LT, United Kingdom. This area, known as the Jewellery Quarter, offers a mix of historical charm and modern amenities. While I don't have an exhaustive list of hotels, here are some options you might consider:

1. Bloc Hotel Birmingham: A stylish and contemporary hotel with compact rooms. It's conveniently situated near the Jewellery Quarter and offers a comfortable stay. Located at Caroline Street, Birmingham, B3 1UG.
2. Saint Pauls House: A boutique hotel with individually designed rooms, combining elegance and comfort. Enjoy its restaurant and bar. Find it at Saint Paul's Square, Birmingham, B3 1QU.
3. Staybridge Suites Birmingham: Ideal for extended stays, this hotel provides spacious suites with kitchenettes. It's within walking distance of the Jewellery Quarter. Located at Martineau Place, Corporation Street, Birmingham, B2 4UW.
4. Hampton by Hilton Birmingham Jewellery Quarter: A reliable chain hotel offering comfortable rooms and a complimentary breakfast. Situated at 98-104 Constitution Hill, Birmingham, B19 3JT.

Transport.

Let's explore the public transport options, parking facilities, and congestion/emission zones around the British Allied Trades Federation (BATF) location at Federation House, 10 Vyse Street, Birmingham, B18 6LT, United Kingdom.

Public Transport:

- West Midlands Metro: The modern tram system, known as the West Midlands Metro, is a convenient way to explore Birmingham. It connects key areas, including the city center and the Jewellery Quarter, which is where the BATF is located¹.
- For comprehensive journey planning, including bus, train, and tram routes, use the Transport for West Midlands (TfWM) journey planner. You can also find walking and cycling routes there²³.

Parking Options:

- Vyse Street Car Park: Located near the BATF, this car park offers both on-street and off-street parking. You can find parking charges, opening hours, and other details on the Parkopedia website⁴.
- Alternatively, consider booking a space in advance through JustPark. They offer various options, including private driveways, multi-storey car parks, and spaces with specific features like CCTV or EV charging facilities⁵.

Congestion and Emission Zones:

- Birmingham has a Clean Air Zone to improve air quality. If your vehicle does not meet emissions standards, you may need to pay a charge to drive within this zone. Use the GOV.UK service to check if your vehicle requires payment and view maps of clean air zones⁶.

If you're arriving at one of Birmingham's mainline stations and need to reach the British Allied Trades Federation (BATF) located at Federation House, 10 Vyse Street, Birmingham, B18 6LT, United Kingdom, here are some convenient public transport options:

1. From Birmingham New Street Station (BHM):
 - Take the West Midlands Metro tram from Birmingham New Street Station to the Jewellery Quarter stop. The tram lines connect key areas, including the city center and the Jewellery Quarter, where the BATF is situated¹.
 - Alternatively, you can take a taxi or use a rideshare service for a direct journey.
2. From Birmingham Snow Hill Station (BSW):
 - Walk to the nearby St. Paul's tram stop (approximately 5 minutes from Snow Hill Station).
 - Take the West Midlands Metro tram toward Wolverhampton and alight at the Jewellery Quarter stop. This will bring you close to the BATF location